Do you offer, manage or deliver outreach projects (education, health, information services, reading, community engagement, tutorials) for the local community?

We have provided and managed activities for the local community related to education, health, information services, reading, community engagement, and tutorials. The designed local community project has taken into consideration Quality Standards, Occupational Health, Safety, Comfort, Implementation Security, Society, and the Environment. The provided activities include counseling, services, consultations, education and training, pilot projects, demonstrations, simulations, and others. The implementation of these activities can involve community services, the deployment of technology according to expertise, capacity building for the community, and community empowerment. The highlighted areas of focus for the Local Community are regional development, Eco green and alternative energy, health and medicine, entrepreneurship, creative industries, and social humanities. The Local Community Project is designed with the following schemes: (1) Community partnership program, (2) village/area development program, (3) campus intellectual property, and entrepreneurial development program, (4) KUM ITT (Collaborative Learning Student Work). The target audience can be selected from community services, the deployment of technology according to expertise, capacity building for the community, and community empowerment. The Local Community Project is related to courses, research, and involves students. It has also accommodated one or more SDGs (Sustainable Development Goals). The Internal Community Service Report is attached.
